

ART OF PEACE

A Workshop in Creative Approaches to Peace Building and Conflict Transformation

September 25/26/27th (Friday/Sat/Sunday)

Times: 9:30 – 4:30 pm

Costs: $195 Conc / $235 Full / $300 Organizations /Institutions.
(Contact us if you will have difficulty with payments).

Venue: Augustine Center - 2 Minona Ave, Hawthorn.

The Art of Peace workshop is a 3-day intensive Train the Trainer workshop exploring creative techniques, visual art exercises, theatrical games to explore participatory, action-reflection techniques in peace building and conflict transformation.

The 3 day program will include:

Personal and Social Conflict Mapping Applied games fro Consciousness-Raising Image Theatre for Problem Solving

Richard works with the Makampom foundation in Thailand and has 20-years of practice in diverse conflict situations in the Asia-Pacific region. Richard has developed this 'Art of Peace' methodology. Xris Reardon, Artistic Director of Third-Way Theatre, has worked with diverse communities both in Melbourne and overseas on issues related to prisonisation domestic violence, racism and homophobia, mental health, poverty etc; Richard and Xris's work references Paolo Freire, Boal's Theatre of the Oppressed, and utilizes a community cultural development approach.

Participants will receive a copy of The Art of Peace, Makhampom's trainer's manual for peace building and conflict resolution.

For bookings contact Xris on (03) 9005 7460 or email inquires@thirdwaytheatre.org.