

Collaborating Down Under

The first collaborative practice conference down under – to be held in Sydney from 26-29 March – will focus on sustaining the social and financial fabric of the family.

"Collaborating Down Under" aims to focus on education, advice and the support families need to sustain its social and financial fabric whether it's in crisis or not.

Collaborative law founders Stu Webb, Peggy Thompson and Nancy Ross as well as the founder of the Boston Law Collaborative, David Hoffman will speak at the Conference.

The Honourable Robert McClelland MP Attorney-General for Australia will speak at the reception on Thursday 26 March and the Honourable Diana Bryant Chief Justice, Family Court of Australia will open the conference.

For the full program >>

Alongside the conference, pre and post conference training will be offered providing a range of collaborative training levels.

For details on training >>

The conference will be held at:
Westin Sydney Hotel
1 Martin Place
SYDNEY NSW

Discount for LEADR members

LEADR members are eligible for a special registration fee of $750 rather than $895 – a discount of over 15%.

To receive the discount, register electronically at the normal registration price and then email the conference administrator on admin@collaboratingdownunder.com informing them that you are a LEADR member.

The administrator will then refund the difference between the amount paid and $750 by refunding your credit card.

To register >>

For more info, see the website:
www.collaboratingdownunder.com

Contact: Marilyn Strauss
T: 61 7 55313810
M: 0413 763810
admin@collaboratingdownunder.com