Redfern
Legal Centre
Fundraising Dinner

Wednesday 24 September 2008
NSW Parliament House
Macquarie St, Sydney
6:30pm - please arrive at 6pm

Guest Speaker: David Marr

Information about ticket purchase over page

Redfern Legal Centre opened its doors in 1977 with one paid staff member, barely any money, and lots of volunteers with expertise, enthusiasm, passion, commitment and a vision.

Redfern Legal Centre is able to attract approximately 30 000 volunteer hours per year and we estimate that through our volunteers we contribute the equivalent of $900,000 worth of services to the community each year. Come to our dinner & show your support!

David Marr is a feature writer for the Sydney Morning Herald having previously written for The Bulletin. His essay "His Master's Voice: The Corruption of Public Debate under Howard" was published in Quarterly Essay 2007 (Issue 27). He received a Walkley Award for his work on Four Corners and is the author of the critically acclaimed biography of Australian writer Patrick White. He will speak on "The State of Justice".
